The Military and Family Life Counseling Program helps military families and children navigate challenges with free face-to-face support.

Child and youth behavioral military and family life counselors, or CYB-MFLCs, provide confidential non-medical counseling services to children and youth up to age 18 in groups and individually. They also offer support to families, staff and support personnel. Working with a counselor can help improve behavior, performance in school and relationships.

CYB-MFLCs are master’s or doctorate-level licensed counselors who may:

• Provide consultation support to parents and caregivers, childcare providers, teachers and administrators on the healthy development of children and youth
• Model evidence-based intervention approaches
• Assist educators with strategies for cultivating a deeper understanding of the factors that shape social-emotional development
• Conduct classroom observations

Services are private and confidential except in situations that involve domestic violence, child abuse, sexual assault or otherwise necessitate a duty to warn.

CYB-MFLCs provide support on topics including, but not limited to:

Feelings identification
• Bullying
• Self-esteem
• Separation from parents
• Problem solving
• Sibling and parent relationships
• Time management
• Deployment and reunification
• Divorce
