MEMORANDUM FOR
FROM: Whiting Field CDC
SUBJECT: Child and Youth Behavioral Military and Family Life Counselor (CYB-MFLC)

1. This letter is to inform you about the Child and Youth Behavioral Military and Family Life Counseling program services. Due to the unique challenges faced by military families, the Department of Defense is offering this private and confidential non-medical counseling service to military service members, military families, and military family service member's children in Child and Youth Programs, Department of Defense Education Activity schools, Local Education Agencies, DoDEA CYP summer programs, National Military Family Association Operation Purple Camps, Guard/Reserve camps, and Operation Military Kids Camps.

2. The CYB-MFLC may support the centers, schools, summer programs and camps and work with military children and their families in the following ways:
   - Observe, participate and engage in activities with children and youth
   - Provide direct interaction with military children
   - Model behavioral techniques and provide feedback
   - Suggest courses of age appropriate behavioral interventions to enhance coping and behavioral skills
   - Provide outreach to military parents when they drop off or pick up their children at family events
   - Be available for military parents to contact for guidance and support
   - Facilitate psycho-educational groups
   - Conduct training for staff and parents
   - Recommend referrals to military social services and other resources as needed

3. CYB-MFLCs may assist military parents, military children and centers with the following type of issues:
   - Communication
   - Self-esteem/self-confidence
   - Resolving conflicts
   - Bullying
   - Behavioral management techniques
   - Helping children deal with angry feelings
   - Sibling/parental relationships
   - Deployment and reintegration issues

4. The counselor may also work with military children in settings such as field trips and other center, camp, or school sponsored activities.

5. The counselor is available to accommodate appointments and meetings activities after hours and on weekends with advance notice.

6. At no time will the counselor meet individually with a child without being in line of sight of a CYP, DoDEA, LEA, camp employee or a parent/guardian.

7. The counselor may use only OSD approved materials for trainings, groups, and any other activities

8. With the exception of mandatory state, federal, and military reporting requirements (i.e., domestic violence, child abuse, and duty-to-warn situations), as well as oversight review by DoD of the service you received should an adverse or harmful event occur, MFLC support is private and confidential to encourage the widest level of participation.

Name of installation and or CYP, school, summer program, or camp

I acknowledge that a CYB-MFLC is available.

I authorize my child ___________________________ to receive CYB-MFLC support.

I DO NOT authorize my child ___________________________ to receive CYB-MFLC support.

TOUCH POLICY

1. PURPOSE: To establish an installation touch policy for implementation in Child Development Programs (CDP) settings.

2. REFERENCES:
   a. OPNAV 1700.9D

3. SCOPE: This SOP applies to all individuals (employees and volunteer working with children within CDP operated and regulated activities.

4. POLICY: This Child Development Programs touch policy is based the premise that positive physical contact with children is absolutely necessary for their healthy growth, development and guidance: whereas, “no touch”, under any circumstances, creates a stark and unacceptable atmosphere for young children. Based on this premise, individuals involved in direct care will provide a positive physical contact (appropriate touch) and refrain from inappropriate touch. Children will always have the option to refuse touch except in case of danger or other children or to the child him/herself.

5. CLARIFICATION OF TERMS
   a. Appropriate touch involves:
      (1) Recognition of the importance of physical contact to child nurture and guidance
      (2) Adult respect for personal privacy and personal space of children.
      (3) Having the permission of the other for touch
      (4) Responses affecting the safety and well being of the child (i.e., holding hand when crossing the street; holding the child gently but firmly during a temper tantrum.)
      (5) Role modeling of appropriate touch by direct care staff.

   b. Examples of appropriate touch are:
      (1) Hugs, holding hands, and lap sitting as expressions of affection to build self-esteem or when the child needs to be comforted.
      (2) Reassuring touch on the shoulder to show approval or provide support
      (3) Naptime back rubs to relax tense child.
      (4) Diapering of infants and toddlers.
      (5) Assistance in toileting for children when needed.
c. Inappropriate touch may involve any or all of the following:
   (1) Coercion (physical or emotional) or other forms of exploitation of the child’s lack of knowledge.
   (2) Disregard for safety and well being of the child.
   (3) Failure to respect the child’s right to personal privacy and space or to refuse touch from an adult.
   (4) Satisfaction of adult needs at the expense of the child.
   (5) Attempts to change child behavior with adult physical force, often, applied anger.
   (6) Reinforces with children the concept of “striking out” to respond to a problem.

d. Examples of inappropriate touch are:
   (1) Forceful holding of a child in a chair or squeezing a child’s hand with sufficient force to cause pain as a way to change behavior.
   (2) Force good-bye kisses or kissing on the lips.
   (3) Corporal punishment: (Spanking.)
   (4) Sexual exploitation (fondling or molestation.)
   (5) Hitting or in any way physically assaulting a child.
   (6) Prolonged tickling.
   (7) No squeezing of face as in “look at me”.
